

Discrimination is Against the Law

Mississippi State Hospital complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or genetic information as these things relate to the treatment of patients/residents. Mississippi State Hospital does not exclude patients/residents or treat them differently because of race, color, gender, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or genetic information.

Mississippi State Hospital:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact the Civil Rights Coordinator.
